

Save!

Every man, woman and child ought to save—it safeguards your future, secures independence and paves the way to success.

The person who cannot, does not and will not save money, cannot and will not do anything else worth while.

We pay 4 per cent interest on savings accounts and 4 per cent on time deposits.

$1.00 will start a savings account here. Today is the day to begin to save and right here, with us, is the safe place to put your savings.

PRICE AND VICINITY

The O. G. Kimball estate at Scofield has paid into the state treasury of Utah a hundred and ten dollars inheritance tax.

So heavy is the present traffic on the Denver and Rio Grande that four extra cars are now going with the overland trains.

The sheep of the Southern Utah counties are in a satisfactory condition, according to F. E. Murray, chief of the bureau of animal industry.

Dr. A. C. Sorenson reports a case of smallpox at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Forsythe, their 3-year-old little girl. The case is a mild one, however.

County Treasurer Oliver T. Harmon has named Miss Mabel Harris of Brigham City as his deputy. The young lady is experienced in the work of the office.

Clyde Jackson, who recently took the State Bank of Helper down the line for about twelve thousand dollars, has been assigned to work in the laundry at the state penitentiary.

The county commissioners are booked to meet in regular session on the 14th of September, Saturday. Numerous bills held over from previous meetings will at that time be passed upon.

West Bros. "Texas Rangers" played under canvas at Price last Saturday evening to above the average audience for this city. The brass band is the best that has ever been along this way, numbers considered.

Utah Hebrews will celebrate their calendar day, marking the third anniversary of the beginning of the world, on September 11th. They believe the world will be 5673 years old on that date. According to orthodox rites the day of atonement begins at sunrise, September 20th.

Foundations for the double brick store buildings of G. A. Iverson on North Eighth street, between his home and that of Levi N. Harmon, to be twenty-five by fifty feet with to be twenty-five by sixty feet with heating plant and basement under the rear.

William Sanders, a railroad man of Helper, reported to the police at Salt Lake City last Friday that he was strongarmed in a saloon on West Second South street. Sanders says that his assailant attacked him and stole a wallet containing ten dollars.

James Bryner has sold his ranch property above Helper to Andrew Owen of Price, the latter having taken possession. Mr. and Mrs.
Bryner are now visiting relatives in various parts of the state and are not as yet decided where they will locate permanently.

John Cook, the fireman who escaped with his life in the wreck at Farnham recently, met with a painful accident a few days later at Castle Gate, when a pickax, with which he was working flew off the handle, striking him on the head and inflicting an ugly wound.

G. A. Iverson has rented his residence property at Price to Mrs. D.
H. Magdell, who will take boarders during the school year. Senator Iverson and family go to Salt Lake City in the meantime, where the former's legislative duties will take up a considerable portion of his time.

Fred W. Chambers, state fish and game commissioner, is eagerly awaiting the arrival of the government sharp requisitioned to investigate Utah's sick ducks. Commissioner Chambers says he hopes to save a majority of the ducks. The government is expected to send two experts instead of one.

Brick work is well along on Kim-met K. Olson's theater building on Main street. The house will seat when completed four hundred and sixty persons, and this capacity may be later increased by a couple of hundred by the addition of a gallery, which is planned. The structure and its furnishings is to cost around fifteen thousand dollars.

Obnoxious weeds throughout the state are doomed, according to the decision of the board of governors of the Utah Development league.
Supervisors are to be appointed for the extermination of the weeds if the state legislature acts upon the suggestion of the board. The board also favors the building of an "Abraham Lincoln military highway."

John Cronin of Silver City, who has charge of the Eureka Hill railroad of the Knight interests, will also have charge of the new coal road being built out of Helper to Spring Canyon. The Helper line has recently bought an eighty-ton Baldwin locomotive and later on will get another. Cronin was formerly general roadmaster of the Denver and Rio Grande.

Paul Hunter, formerly a resident of Price but for several years chief clerk for the Utah Fuel company at Someset, Colo., has patented a honey sealing can that promises to make him a fortune. He has been offered ten thousand dollars for the exclusive use of the device.

Hunter puts in his spare time on a ranch which he owns not far from the Colorado coal camp.

George O. Horner has rented the west store room of the new Fitzgerald building at the corner of Main and Tenth streets and will open a five and ten cent store. His stock is now en route and will be here by the time the mechanics are through with the finishing of the room. Horner has been for some time in the employ of the Weeter Lumber company.

Carl Peterson of Mt. Pleasant was found dead in the mountains east of there last Saturday. The cause of death is undetermined.
His skull was fractured, and it is believed the young man was kicked by his horse. An investigation is being made. Peterson and his brother at one time worked for Carlos Gundersen of Price as sheepherders.
Gundersen was telephoned of the finding of the man's body.

Price's public schools open next Monday, September 9th, with Prof.
Wayne Johnson as principal. The teachers are Addie S. Wilcox, Nona Goodwin, Carlos Woodward, Evelyn Lowrey, Nellie Muldrow, N. W. Anderson, Pearl Dalton, Charlotte Hain and Ida Pace. Miss Hain and Professor Anderson come from Maniti to Price. Price academy began last Tuesday. The teaching corps appears elsewhere in this impression of The Advocate.

Prof. Marcus E. Jones in a recent trip to the old iron mine at the head of the north fork of the Provo river discovered at an altitude of nine thousand feet a fern entirely new to this country, growing in clefs and crevices of the rocks. The botanical name is pellaea gracilis and the plant is about three inches long. Prof. Jones says he has seen nothing like it in twenty years. This rare variety of fern was not supposed to exist in this state.

The completion of the geological survey of the Grand river from Moab to the Green river will be attended to by a corps of government engineers within the next few weeks. R. C. Bell, head of a force of surveyors of the geological survey, arrived at Grand Junction the other day, where he will be joined by five other engineers. The work will take two or three months to complete. The party will start in at Moab, where they left of last year.

The American express and the Wells-Fargo have issued orders to their agents to use the universal system of labeling and billing of freight which was authorized by the interstate commerce commission in a recent ruling. Under the new system all way billing is to be done in triplicate, one of the copies to be posted on the shipment for the information of the consignee. Each shipment also must bear a label indicating whether it is prepaid, collect or a lot shipment.

Penn Olson, who is looking after the farm lands of John Y. Smith under the big canal south of Price, has left at the office of "the great moral and religious" samples of potatoes grown just west of the old sheep shearing corral that would be hard to beat in any man's country. In the immediate neighborhood there is this year about two hundred acres of potatoes planted that will average three to four hundred bushels to the acre. This is the first season the land has been cultivated.

Beginning September 25th and continuing until October 10th, special colonist rates are to go into effect from as far East as Chicago to Utah points. Stopover privileges are allowed to all points west of Canon City, Colo. The roundtrip fare from Chicago to any point in Utah is $133.00; from St. Louis, $22.00; Missouri river points, $25.00.
Low rates are also in effect from St. Paul and Minneapolis and from Iowa cities. Detailed information will be furnished upon application to any Denver and Rio Grande agent, or to F. A. Wadleigh, general passenger agent, Denver, Colo.

Frank R. Kleser, a brakeman on the Denver and Rio Grande, was instantly killed at Thompsons last Thursday by being run over by a train. Kleser was switching on a sidetrack when the fatal accident occurred. He lived at Denver, and his body was placed on a train to be shipped to that place. A coroner's inquest had not been held, however, and when his body reached Grand Junction, the officials of the line would not allow it to go further. It was returned to Thompsons for the inquest.

PURELY PERSONAL

—Mrs. R. D. Bunnells of Eureka was registered at the Savoy yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Naughton of Logan were Tavern guests the first of the week.

—H. Flaim and Baptiste Vignetto were doing business here yesterday, returning to Helper in the evening.

—J. C. Weeter is expected here this week to let the contract for his new building at the corner of Main and Ninth streets.

—L. C. Moore is here today from Rochester. Bumper crops of all kinds are promised for this fall throughout the Kingdom of Emory.

—J. E. Magerl, formerly of Kenilworth, is registered at the Savoy today from Salt Lake City. He has returned to his former employment as conductor on the San Pedro out-of Zion.

—J. M. Millard is in this week from Boneta on the former Utah reservation. Crops are generally good throughout that section and will be the best of any year since that country was thrown open to settlement.

Kennedy's at all prices.

Free Milk For Babies.
The city of Nashville, Tenn., has established a dispensary in which clean milk is supplied to infants. It is to be equipped by Mrs. Mary Herbrick, a public spirited woman. She was induced to act after the city had failed to furnish the money. The Nashville health department is thoroughly in sympathy with the project, which is expected to save the lives of many children.

Tomatoes in Park.
The city council of Milliken, Colo., has planted the city park, consisting of several acres, with tomatoes in place of grass. The money received from the crop will be used to purchase shade trees for the park.

FRUIT HARVESTERS ARE VERY HARD TO GET NOW

Says Provo's Post of Saturday last: "The great problem facing the fruitgrowers in this section is that of labor. Already every available harvest hand in this section has been engaged to work in the orchards, and calls are being sent to Sanpete, Carbon, Wasatch and other counties for assistance, and inquiries have been made from points as far east as Topeka, Kan., for the purpose of learning where available help can be obtained.

should the growers be unable to get the needed assistance from the different sections of this state. As soon as the peach crop is off the apple will come on and harvest hands will find employment until late in October in picking and packing ready for shipment the various varieties of fruit."
